

The British Association for Applied Linguistics

BAAL International Scholarship Form

41st BAAL Annual Meeting

Swansea

11-13 September 2008

Taking the measure of applied linguistics

BAAL is offering two awards (one of which is the Chris Brumfit Award) to international colleagues, based overseas, who have had papers accepted for the 2008 Annual Meeting and who would otherwise be unable to attend because of economic hardship. The scholarships cover the conference fee, accommodation and travel up to £1,000. BAAL does not provide additional living subsidies once the sponsored scholar is at the conference.

If you would like to apply for a BAAL International Scholarship, please fill in this form and e-mail it to BAAL08@ling.ed.ac.uk along with your abstract submission or return it to the address below by 31 March 2008:

Erik Schleef, (BAAL08)
Linguistics and English Language
40 George Square
University of Edinburgh
Edinburgh EH8 9LL; Scotland, UK

Your name: .....

Your address: .....

.....

.....

Tel: ..... Email: .....

The university where you are based: .....

Have you been awarded a BAAL Scholarship before? Yes / No*

If so, please give details: .....

Have you attended a BAAL Annual Meeting before? Yes / No*

If so, which year(s)? .....

ADD 100 WORDS TO DESCRIBE YOUR ECONOMIC SITUATION SO THAT, ONCE WE HAVE RATED THE ABSTRACTS OF ALL APPLICANTS, WE CAN THEN AWARD THE SCHOLARSHIP TO THE TOP PERSON WHO ALSO HAS THE GREATEST HARDSHIP.

**Delete as applicable*