

THINKING CRITICALLY ABOUT "IMPACT"

WHAT IS THE WORKSHOP ABOUT?

BAAL Researcher Development Workshops are designed to respond to the research development needs of all BAAL PhD and ECR members.

In this workshop Peter Browning and Katy Highet will facilitate a critical reflection on issues around research "impact".

DISCOURSES OF "IMPACT"

We will spend time in the workshop critically considering the discourses, challenges and limits of research "impact" and "engagement"

"IMPACT" IN OUR OWN RESEARCH

We will also reflect, and receive feedback on our current and future research plans in light of our discussions about "impact" and "engagement"

GROUP ACTIVITIES

The core of the day will be dialogue and group engagement around our own research

INVITED ROUND TABLE

We will hear from colleagues engaging with research "impact" in a number of innovative ways

NETWORKING

Throughout the day, there will be plenty of opportunities for formal and informal networking

WHAT WILL THE WORKSHOP BE LIKE?

The workshop will take place face-to-face at the University of Birmingham on 22nd May, 2023, 9:00am-4:00pm.

We will take part in a number of interactive activities during the day-long workshop.

Confirmed Speakers:

*Dermot Bryers
Mi-Cha Flubacher
Ruanni Tupas
Sibo Kanobana*

WHAT DOES IT COST?

Whilst the workshop is free, you will have to pay for your travel to the University of Birmingham.

We are able to offer a number of bursaries (max. £100) for participation. You will be prompted to indicate if you hope to apply for a busary when you register.

HOW TO REGISTER?

Places are limited so please apply via this form: <https://bit.ly/RDWIMPACT> before March 31st.

You must be an active member of BAAL to participate in the workshop.

Successful participants will be contacted via email in early April.